Dear Mr. Martin,

I wanted to make you aware of the excellent job that WVMV Detroit is doing for local organizations like ours in the community. It freely gives of its air time and personnel's time to help make a difference for non-profits and other community organizations in Metro Detroit.

Recently, the station interviewed two representatives of our organization, CARE House of Oakland County, for an approximately 28-minute public affairs segment to help us bring the topic of child abuse and neglect to the public's attention during National Child Abuse Prevention and Awareness Month. Subsequently, WVMV producer/host Sandy Kovach very capably and generously emceed our Circle of Light – a public awareness event – on her own time - and coordinated the videotaping of a podcast at the event. The podcast ran on the station's Web site, an added value for our organization at no cost to us, which further extended educating the public about a very real and pervasive issue in our society.

WVMV is more than a good neighbor. It is a true partner to non-profits and community organizations in our area.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Ludwig, Director
Advocacy and Prevention
